

Reflecting Gold

New Release in Southern Guild Series

By Cynthia L. Simmons

“Reflecting Gold will keep you turning pages. Mary Beth Roper and her husband must solve a mystery while navigating a war-torn world. What a fun way to learn history!”

-Lee Ann Mancini, author of Sea Kids, Adjunct Professor at Southern Florida Bible College/Theological Seminary

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.— In her new novel, Reflecting Gold, Cynthia L. Simmons continues her captivating NOVEL OF THE CIVIL WAR series. Reflecting Gold follows the first book in the series- Pursuing Gold. Readers will love that Simmons is once again taking her fondness for history and carrying it into this telling story. Readers will love following Pete and Mary Beth Chandler, who kept their Confederate bank on the gold standard. But when a Confederate office asked for a loan, the way he wanted to pay it back wasn't exactly as planned. Should the Chandlers make a decision, and risk losing the bank? Will the entire town turn against them? Will they turn to God for help during this time of trouble?

From the story of Pete and Mary Beth Chandler, to the extensive research, to the continuation of an amazing series, readers will love Reflecting Gold. Simmons has also included some extras in the back of the book, including her AUTHOR'S NOTE and GLOSSARY. Readers will love her attention to detail, the clever story, and the twists and turns along the way. If readers haven't picked up the first book, Pursuing Gold, they should do so, then they won't miss a beat with Reflecting Gold. Fans of Simmons and new readers alike are going to love this new book in the series. Aren't you ready to dig into the perfect end-of-summer read?
